Show Dad He's King of the Jungle at The Toledo Zoo!

Toledo, Ohio— From Boomer the orangutan to Simon the saddle-billed stork, The Toledo Zoo is full of great dads. There will be one more when you celebrate Father's Day at the Zoo, Sunday, June 15. With free admission for dads when they visit with their children, activities, and an opportunity to enjoy a special BBQ lunch, this is a day your family won't want to miss.

In addition to the usual Zoo fun, families will be able to test their skills with a Full Court Press Basketball Challenge, a Home Run Derby Challenge and a Football Toss Challenge. These activities will be open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. and are all free with your paid admission. Look for more information at www.toledozoo.org.

Seating times for the BBQ lunch are 11 a.m., 12 p.m., 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. This special event fills up fast, so please call (419) 385-5721, ext. 3092, to reserve your space; a non-refundable payment is due at the time the reservation is made. Prices for the BBQ lunch are as follow:

Members

The Toledo Zoo is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.

The Toledo Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA). Look for the AZA logo whenever you visit a zoo or aquarium as your assurance that you are supporting a facility dedicated to providing excellent care for animals, a great experience for you, and a better future for all living things. With its more than 200 accredited members, AZA is building North America's largest wildlife conservation movement.
