Toledo Zoo Announces Summer Concert Season

Toledo, Ohio—Summer's coming, and that means another season of concerts at The Toledo Zoo! The 2009 Circle K Summer Concert Series at The Toledo Zoo currently features two great concerts in a great venue—The Toledo Zoo's historic Amphitheatre. Tickets for these concerts go on sale to the general public on Friday, April 24 at 10:00 a.m.

Veteran rockers Crosby, Stills and Nash will perform on Sunday, June 7. Celebrating forty years together, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame inductees draw from a wealth of classics, including "Teach Your Children," "Suite: Judy Blue Eyes," and "Woodstock." Tickets are $70.50, $53.50 and $43.50.

Neo-soul singer and pianist John Legend and special guest India Arie will take the stage on Monday, July 20. Legend, a three-time Grammy winner, has released three Top Ten albums since 2004. Tickets are $70.50, $59.50 and $40.50.

Through tomorrow, Thursday, April 23, at 5:00 p.m., Toledo Zoo members have an exclusive opportunity to purchase tickets online before they go on sale to the general public. To purchase a Toledo Zoo membership, visit www.toledozoo.org.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.

The Toledo Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA). Look for the AZA logo whenever you visit a zoo or aquarium as your assurance that you are supporting a facility dedicated to providing excellent care for animals, a great experience for you, and a better future for all living things. With its more than 200 accredited members, AZA is building North America's largest wildlife conservation movement.
