Elephant Painting Demo Part of Frozentoesen Weekend Fun

Toledo, Ohio—Renee the elephant’s artistry has become the talk of the region, so The Toledo Zoo is offering another opportunity to win one of these rare masterpieces! On Saturday, January 10, at 10:30 a.m., the Zoo will present an elephant painting demonstration in the African Savanna. The painting that Renee creates will then be on display in the Zoo’s North Star Trading Post®, where visitors can purchase tickets to win it!

Tickets to win Renee’s painting can be purchased through Saturday, February 28, and the winner will be announced on Monday, March 2. For more information, visit www.toledozoo.org.

This elephant painting demonstration and raffle is part of the Zoo’s Frozentoesen, a celebration of all things winter. Throughout January and February, The Toledo Zoo offers half-price admission, plus ice-carving demonstrations, Cabin Fever Feeds, live performances and more to help you “dig the cool.”

On January 10 and 11, puppeteer Joyce Davis will perform in the Zoo’s Indoor Theatre, and a bounce house will be set up in the Great Hall of the Museum of Science. For a complete listing of performances and activities taking place throughout Frozentoesen, visit the Zoo’s website, www.toledozoo.org. Frozentoesen is presented by St. Vincent Mercy Children’s Hospital.

The Toledo Zoo is open daily from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is located on the Anthony Wayne Trail (US 25), four miles south of downtown Toledo. For more information, please visit www.toledozoo.org or call (419) 385-4040. Lucas County residents are admitted free of charge each Monday from 10 a.m. to noon. ID showing proof of residency is required.

The Toledo Zoo is accredited by the Association of Zoos & Aquariums (AZA). Look for the AZA logo whenever you visit a zoo or aquarium as your assurance that you are supporting a facility dedicated to providing excellent care for animals, a great experience for you, and a better future for all living things. With its more than 200 accredited members, AZA is building North America’s largest wildlife conservation movement.
